Auction Technology Group plc ("ATG" or the "Company")

Statement regarding Possible Offer for ATG by FitzWalter Capital Limited ("FitzWalter")

The Board of ATG (the "Board") notes the announcement made by FitzWalter on 16 January 2026 (the "Announcement") in which FitzWalter stated it was considering making a cash offer of 400 pence per ATG share (the "Indicative Offer").

At the time of this announcement, no customary letter setting out the full terms and conditions of the Indicative Offer has been received by the Board. Macquarie Capital, FitzWalter's financial adviser, confirmed such a letter would not be provided and that the Board should make its own assumptions as to the other terms and conditions of the Indicative Offer.

The Board, together with its advisers, met on 18 January 2026 to consider the Indicative Offer. The Board unanimously concluded that the Indicative Offer fundamentally undervalued the Company and its future prospects. ATG shareholders are strongly advised to take no action at this time.

ATG will provide an update on its progress as part of the AGM Trading Update on 22 January 2026.

Commenting, Scott Forbes, Chair of ATG said:

"The Board will continue to act in the best interests of all stakeholders and remains confident in ATG's standalone prospects. We have valued the constructive engagement with our shareholders over the last few weeks. The Board, mindful of its fiduciary duties, stands ready to constructively engage with FitzWalter, or any other party, if a comprehensive proposal that reflects fair value is presented to it. The Board firmly believes that FitzWalter's latest proposal fundamentally undervalues ATG and its future prospects."

There can be no certainty that any firm or further proposal will be made by FitzWalter or any other party.

In accordance with Rule 2.6(a) of the Code, FitzWalter is required, by not later than 5.00pm on 2 February 2026, being 28 days after 5 January 2026, the date the Company first announced FitzWalter's possible offer, to announce either a firm intention to make an offer for ATG in accordance with Rule 2.7 of the Code, or that it does not intend to make an offer, in which case the announcement will be treated as a statement to which Rule 2.8 of the Code applies. This deadline can be extended with the consent of the Panel on Takeovers and Mergers in accordance with Rule 2.6(c) of the Code.

This announcement is made without the consent of FitzWalter.

Disclosure requirements of the Code

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Code, any person who is interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the offer period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the commencement of the offer period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror prior to the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure.

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s), save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Takeover Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the offer period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. You should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0)20 7638 0129 if you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure.

Website publication

In accordance with Rule 26.1 of the Code, a copy of this announcement will be available on ATG's website (<https://www.auctiontechnologygroup.com/investors>) by no later than 12 noon (London time) on the business day following the date of this announcement. The contents of the website referred to in this announcement are not incorporated into and do not form part of this announcement.
